MEET AYO'S FAMILY

The people who make every adventure feel like home.

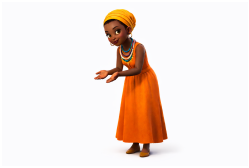
A CLOSE-KNIT FAMILY. A WORLD-SIZED CLASSROOM.

Ayo was born in Atlanta and is growing up in a loving married-family household. Because Ayo is homeschooled, travel becomes part of her education - every destination offers new people, cultures, landscapes, and experiences to learn from.

MALIK

Leader • The Guide

Ayo's dad is a native of Rwanda and a global filmmaker and producer. Calm, confident, and encouraging, Malik helps turn real-world moments into lessons without making them feel like lectures.



IMANI

Faith • The Foundation

Ayo's mom was born in Atlanta to South African parents. Grounded, loving, and intentional, Imani believes in exposing her children to the world - not simply telling them about it.

AYO

Joy • The Light

The joyful explorer at the heart of the adventure.

ELI

Curiosity • The Spark

Ayo's twin brother - observant, inquisitive, and always ready to ask, “What happens if we try it?”

LILA

Heart • The Warmth

Ayo's younger sister - expressive, full of wonder, and quick to notice the people, colors, sounds, and feelings of a place.

EVERYWHERE THEY GO, THEY LEARN TOGETHER.

The family is tightly connected, and exploration is part of everyday life. For Ayo, the world is not separate from school - the world is her classroom.
